

SIETAR 2005

Pre-Congress Workshop

In Ethical Decision Making

September 21, La Colle sur Loup (near Nice), France

The Intercultural Aspect of Ethical Decision Making Which side are you on?

An initiation to the ethical dimension of decision-making in multicultural contexts. How do different cultures evaluate moral dilemma?

This workshop is a practical approach to dilemma training arising from conflicts in values or ethics. Philosophical ethical theories (such as utilitarianism, deontology, Kant) will be applied to real concrete cases and viewed from diverse cultural perspectives.

An opportunity to enhance your understanding of cultural diversity and the complexity of ethical decision making.

Gale Prawda, Ph.D.

Specialist in Applied Philosophy, Business Ethics & Intercultural Management
